THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

With a population of approximately 10 million people, the County of Los Angeles has more residents than any county in the nation, and within its boundaries are 88 cities. It is rich in cultural diversity and home to world-renowned museums, theaters, the nation's motion picture industry, major universities and numerous five-star restaurants. The mountains, deserts, and the beautiful Pacific Ocean, along with some of the world's finest urban recreational attractions, are freeway close.

The County is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors who are elected on a non-partisan basis and serve four-year terms. As the governing body, the Board of Supervisors serves as both the executive and legislative authority of the largest and most complex county government in the United States. Department Heads report to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) with the exception of three elected officials (Assessor, District Attorney, and Sheriff), and four appointed positions (Fire Chief, Auditor-Controller, County Counsel, and Executive Officer of the Board of Supervisors).

The County has an annual budget in excess of $24 billion, and 37 major administrative units or departments serve the needs of the County's residents. The County employs over 100,000 full-time personnel to serve its diverse population.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

The Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) provides consumer protection, counseling, complaint investigation, and mediation services to consumers and businesses in Los Angeles County through advocacy, empowerment and education. Staff investigates and mediates complaints of unethical and deceptive business practices between consumers and merchants. The department also conducts special investigations that are presented to prosecuting agencies for civil and criminal prosecution. The DCA serves as the central reporting agency for real estate fraud and works closely with private industry groups, government agencies, and law enforcement agencies to detect and investigate real estate fraud. The identity theft unit provides services to victims of identity theft by helping them restore their credit and prevent identity thieves from continuing to make fraudulent purchases.

THE POSITION

The Director of Consumer Affairs has full responsibility for the overall administrative functioning of the Department and for the planning and implementation of programs, policies, and procedures to protect the interests of consumers and promote fair, ethical, and responsible business practices within the County.
